Margate's Post Ernesto (Update #2)

Margate, FL, August 30, 2006 – The City of Margate has determined the following updates due to Tropical Storm Ernesto.

- Margate City hall will reopen for normal business on Thursday August 31, 2006.
- City damage assessments have been conducted and there is no damage to report.
- Margate Inner-City Transit has resumed its regular inner-city schedules and will resume complete schedules when the County routes begin at 12:00 today. Call the Margate Transit line for more information: 954-972-5497.
- Waste Management will resume regular trash pick-up routes Thursday. For more information call 954-974-7500.
- In the event that storm debris is present, the City asks residents to please remember that post-storm clean up includes separating trash and debris into three groups.
  1. House-hold trash
  2. Vegetation (i.e. branches and leaves)
  3. Construction (i.e. shingles)
- The Wednesday City Commission Meeting for August 30, 2006 remains scheduled for its original time with a modified agenda visit www.margatefl.com to view the agenda.
