Margate Curfew Change, Busses Start Running

October 29, 2000 Margate, FL – The City of Margate has changed the city-wide curfew for pedestrians and vehicular traffic. Originally the hours were set for 7:00 p.m. until 7:00 a.m. The new hours are from 11:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. The new times will be in effect until further notice.

Margate Intercity Transit (MIT) will run on a limited route from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Routes A and D will be running while the other busses will continue to be used for various condo associations who have a need for transportation to area grocery stores. Route A has six stops and Route D has eight stops throughout the city. Call 954-972-5497 for details on bus routes.

All city employees are expected to report to work on Monday October 31, 2005 at their regularly scheduled times. City Hall remains closed for normal business.
