

PETITION FOR VACATION OR ABANDONMENT OF DRAINAGE OR ROAD RIGHT-OF-WAY

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1) Complete the application form for vacation or abandonment of drainage or road right-of-way and submit to the City Clerk's Office along with the legal description/sketch and fee. Provide each applicable utility company (electric, telecommunication, natural gas, etc.) with a utility company response form. The application package will not be considered complete until all response forms from the applicable utility companies are received by the City Clerk's Office.
- 2) The completed application package will be submitted to the City's Director of Environmental and Engineering Services. The Director of Environmental and Engineering Services will consult with city staff from other relevant departments and then provide a recommendation regarding the petition.
- 3) The staff recommendation will be forwarded to the City Commission for consideration as outlined below.

CITY COMMISSION PROCEDURE

ORDINANCE PROCEDURE: If the subject right-of-way was dedicated to the City of Margate by deed, the City Commission will consider an ordinance for vacation and abandonment.

RESOLUTION PROCEDURE: If the subject right-of-way was dedicated by a plat of record, the City Commission will consider a resolution consenting to the vacation and abandonment. The petitioner must then contact Broward County and follow their procedures for the vacation and abandonment to become effective.
